Subject: Study Skills Seminar — Saturday, April 17, 1999

It has come to our attention that some of our cadets have been having difficulty in their scholastic activities. And because of this, some have had to reduce, or even eliminate, their involvement in Civil Air Patrol. Even though we feel that CAP is a worthwhile activity and regret the loss, we fully understand and support those parents' decision. The bottom line is that school comes first!

Because we feel so strongly about this, and because we feel that the cadet program has a responsibility to support our cadets where needed, we have developed a basic study skills seminar that we will present beginning at 9:00 AM on Saturday, April 17, 1999 at the CAP hanger.

We are very excited about this seminar and believe that if the cadets put it to use, they will improve their performance in school as well as in their CAP studies.

The seminar is designed to be useful for teachers and parents as well as the cadets, so we encourage you to join us. We need your support to make this program perform at its full potential.

This is a working meeting so the uniform of the day is BDUs (casual for parents).

Thank you, and please take a moment to let us know how many of you will be attending so we can be sure to have enough materials and handouts for everyone.

For more information contact Bill Jackson at 466-1455.
